SAMPLE ITINERARY (TREKKING / RELAX)

Day 1 – Bariloche - EL SAPUCAI

transfer, 1st day of activity (1 - 2 hs)

Our journey takes us by private transfer along Route 40, the famous route running along the foot of the Cordillera between the north and south of the country. We first cross the Norpatagonia lake region, and after about three and a half hours we reach “Sapucaí,” our place in the Cordillera. We settle into our cozy yurts and enjoy the beauty of a quiet afternoon. Before dinner, we’ll likely have time for a walk along the banks of the Chubut River or to say hello to our farm animals.

Day 2 – EL SAPUCAI - Mirador

2nd day of activity (3 – 5 hs)

Our first day of activity takes us on a trek along a trail to our lookout point in the Precordillera. Here, during the rest stop and lunch, our gaze stretches out over the immensity of the steppe, and we slowly begin to get our bearings in this new environment. Depending on the group’s mood, we may stay a little longer before heading back to our lodge, leaving the rest of the afternoon free for everyone — whether to read a book, nap in a hammock, or explore the banks of the Chubut River.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner, Overnight at EL SAPUCAI

Day 3 – EL SAPUCAI - Chubut River Beach

3rd day of activity (2 – 4 hs)

Today will be a bit different. We ride downriver on horseback, and after about 1 ½ hours we reach a sandy beach on the banks of the Chubut River. Here we can rest, explore the Chubut River, and enjoy a delicious lunch that we brought along in our saddlebags. In the afternoon we’ll head back to our starting point, our “El Sapucaí” lodge. It’s a lovely experience with few difficulties, perfect for people who enjoy horseback riding and a mountain setting

Day 4 – EL SAPUCAI - Bariloche

4th day of activity (1 – 2 hs)

Our last day at EL SAPUCAI. Today we take it easy. After breakfast we start packing our bags, spend a little more time with the animals or do some activity by the river, and around midday we set off on our journey back to Bariloche.

DELICATESSEN

The cuisine at EL SAPUCAI is a special blend of flavors and ingredients, drawing on the ethnic variety of Patagonian criollo cooking, all prepared on our traditional wood-fired stove. Traditional criollo asado may be served at several meals. It consists of delicious lamb or beef roasted over embers and wood. As the main traditional dish, it's cooked in different ways, usually accompanied by salad, potatoes, and, of course, red wine. The vegetables and fruit are excellent and very varied. Vegetarian dishes are a delicious option, but we need to know in advance if you prefer vegetarian options when making your reservation.

THINGS TO KEEP IN MIND

When entering the Cordillera, a place where “the supermarket, or the corner store” is not within reach, it's good to keep a few things in mind and not forget certain items that will help you fully enjoy your stay, such as:

- Hat or cap
- Sunglasses
- High-factor sunscreen (the ozone layer is very thin in the south)
- Lip protection against wind and sun
- Long-sleeve shirts (protection from harsh weather such as strong sun, wind, and cold)
- A good insect repellent
- Camera and/or video camera, spare battery and memory card (there is no electricity)
- Windbreaker and fleece jacket and/or a sweater are ideal for nights in the Cordillera
- Flashlight (a headlamp is ideal)
